A MEMBER REMOVED.

(Per United Press Association.)

SYDNEY, February 26.

Mr Leviens' motion reflecting on the Speaker was the first business he free from any restrictions by the them according to directions found withdraw and apologise.

of personal offensiveness. question of personal but offence to the House. Declining to withdraw Mr Wood was removed by the Speaker's order, the Opposition showing strong resentment. The Speaker cautioned two other members. Mr Leviens moved his motion. Mr Leviens took exception to the manner of Mr Willis' appointment, He did not think any Government in this or any other country would allow the chair to be occupied under sizeilar circumstances. He (Mr Levieur) an Independent was offered and refused the chair, but Mr Willis, a Liberal, accepted under conditions which made his occupancy a matter of sorrow, Mr Willis had not occupied if with the dignity necessary to the position. The essentials were inpartiality, fairness, and common justice, but he had not been impartial,
