WOULD NOT SUFFER SO AGAIN FOR FIFTY TIMES ITS PRICE.

I awoke last night with severe pains in my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly work. I went to Miller and McCurdy's drug store and they recommended Cham berlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoes Remedy. It worked like magic, and one dose fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereafter, for I should not care encure the sufferings of last night again for fifty times its price.-G. H. Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa. Borough Councillors; on the Mayor suggestion, are generally agreed that the Council Chambers, also the front of the Grahamstown Fire Brigade station, quire re-painting. Cr Poulgrain, however, pointed out that the best time for painting was in March or April, as at the presen time the painters were full of work, and the work would cost far more now than in the fall of the year. It was also pointed out that a short time ago a £7 painting job brought five tenders, whereas the recent School of Mines work (£67) brought only one tender. It was decided that specifications for the proposed painting be submitted to next meeting.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1900. THE HOSPITAL BAZAAR.

The ladies who have devoted so much trouble and expense in the production of the artistic exhibits of fancy work at the Thames Hospital Bazaar deserve the greatest praise for their voluntary and successful efforts in rendering financial assistance to the trustees. At the time the project of the bazaar was mooted, some months ago, we heartily applauded it, and expressed the opinion that if the prominent ladics of the district undertook the organisation of such an exhibition, it would prove a great artistic and financial success It is but accentuating the splendid reputation which the Thames ladies have won for themselves for energy in the promotion of public undertakings of a philanthropic nature, when we repeat the very true obtheir valuable assistance. In the evening there was a very large we'll maintained, but faulty and burry, floors, and side shows as well as stalls did big business. A feature of the work on exhibition was a beautiful linen quilt, largely the work of Mrs Clendon; and a handsomely-worked shield, with monogram, drew forth many favorably criticisms; this shield was the work of Miss Lynch. Towards 10 o'clock the crowd thinned out, and on counting up it was found that £86 was in hand without counting proceeds from two stalls and from sale of tickets, so that the total takings should be well over £100, which is a fine accomplishment for the first day.

The bazaar will be open again at the notified hours this afternoon and evening. It will be decided to-day whether the committee will hold a children's afternoon to norrow. A feature of this evening's proceedings will be a violin solo by Miss Donaldsou voung Dunedin violiniste of great accom plishment now on a visit to the Thames. A programme of other musical items will be arranged. The heat in the hall was considerably complained of last evening, certainly not without cause. This evening the ladies will have ice cream provided

FATAL ACCIDENT.

An action was heard by the Chief Justice this morning, in which George H. M. Hewson, a blind man carrying on a labor agency, sned Thomas Sute, of Taihape, for £300 damages for alleged libel contained in a telegram as follows: "Unless money is returned immediately will sue for obtaining under false pretences." The defendant pleaded that the telegram, which he believed was sent by his wife, was forwarded without his knowledge or consent. As the parties had agreed that if the telegram were found to be of a defamatory nature, damages should be £2 with £10 costs, His Honor reserved his decision to consider the important bearing of the case upon telegraphed communications.
